

Module 2

Assignment 2

Go into your pantry/refrigerator and look through the ingredients on the back of the product. Find as many products as you can with the additives and oils listed on the following page. On your worksheet provided, list out the names of the additives and oils you found OR you can print the additives and oils page and circle what you found.

